Letter Mailing

Reference: DIR-17578, 9 June 1965

1. Transmitted herewith are the five letters described in the Reference. We request that they be mailed as soon as possible and definitely not later than 28 June. The reason for this request is that we wish to protect from any suspicion certain Soviet Ukrainian writers who, it is expected, will be travelling to Yugoslavia to attend the P.E.N. Congress in Bled. Please mail the letters from different parts of ☐ to increase the chances of getting at least some of them through the censors.

2. The letters are typed on typical Soviet stationery and have been placed in Yugoslav envelopes to make it appear that the letters were carried to Yugoslavia either by a Soviet Ukrainian citizen or by a Yugoslav citizen of Ukrainian birth (of whom there are many) who visited in the Soviet Union.

3. Please affix to the letters the postage which is appropriate for surface mail to Italy.
